IRIS SOCIETY OF MINNESOTA SHOW RULES HORTICULTURE RULES FOR ISM SHOWS

1. Entries are open to anyone who grows Irises. Each exhibitor is limited to one entry of any particular variety (class). All entries must be correctly identified and entered in the proper division, section and class.
2. Entries will be received from 8:00 to 10:00 A.M. Late entries will not be judged. Containers provided by show.
3. Exhibitors must register their name and address with the Show Clerk.
4. Exhibits must have been grown and entered by the exhibitor whose name appears on the show tag.
5. Adult members of a family must enter as one exhibitor in all divisions. Youth members may enter as individuals in the youth division only.
6. Youth members are those who have not reached the age of nineteen (19) at show time.
7. Entry tags and containers will be furnished for all exhibits.
8. This show is being held by, and judged under the rules and regulations of the American Iris Society.
9. Official rules and regulations of AIS cannot be violated.
10. Only AIS judges and clerks should be present during judging.
11. Exhibitors are requested to remove all unused materials and containers from the show area.
12. At the close of the show, 5:00 P.M., exhibitors must claim their own exhibits and ribbons. Plant materials not claimed will be disposed of at the discretion of the show chairpersons.
13. Seedlings must be entered under seedling number or registered name.
14. On items not covered by these rules, the decisions of the Show Chairs are final.

AWARDS

1. One first, second, and third place ribbon may be awarded to each CULTIVAR (variety), except seedling, if appropriate in the opinion of the judges.
2. Exhibition Certificate and Best Seedling of Show Rosette will be awarded to the best seedling in the show. Additional certificates may be awarded to any seedlings that receive five or more votes from the attending judges.
3. Section ribbons will be awarded if worthy.
4. The best specimen is chosen from all competitive single specimens except seedling and bulbous entries. Section winners will receive rosettes.
5. The American Iris Society Silver Medal and Certificate will be awarded to the exhibitor for the largest number of blue ribbons (reds and whites to break ties) in Horticulture.
6. The American Iris Society Bronze Medal and Certificate will be awarded to the exhibitor for the second largest number of blue ribbons (reds and whites to break ties) in Horticulture.
7. Youth Division must contain at least 10 entries and at least 2 exhibitors to qualify for AIS Youth Silver and Bronze Medals and Certificates.

8. Awards will be presented at the ISM Annual Awards Banquet.

JUDGING

All Horticultural judging shall be done by AIS judges. The Judges Chairperson will be responsible for inviting all ISM judges. The Judges Chair shall assign judges for judging, provide seedling ballots, collect them, and make all decisions regarding judging. ISM judges may not knowingly judge their own flowers or any flowers from their own gardens shown by members of their households.

COURT OF HONOR

The Court of honor shall include; Best Design of Show, Best Youth Design; Best Horticultural Specimen, Section Champions, and if merited, other Special Awards as listed. All Court of Honor exhibits must score 90 or more points. Court of Honor horticultural winners shall be selected per secret ballot by AIS judges without exhibits considered for the Court of Honor.

RULES FOR DIVISION VI: ARTISTIC

1. Entries are open to all. Each exhibitor is limited to one entry per class. The exhibitor may enter in only one section.
2. All arrangements must be the work of the exhibitor.
3. Irises must be the dominant flower. Entries may include any type of plant material except artificial unless otherwise specified.
4. Irises need not be grown by the exhibitor. Entry tags should include Iris name if known.
5. Mats, backgrounds, bases and accessories may be used in all classes. If a background is used, the exhibitor must provide the means of support.
6. Exhibitors must claim their property immediately after the close of the show at 5:00 P.M.
7. Judging will be done by qualified artistic judge(s). Their decision is final.
8. Horticultural rules 9, 10, and 12 also apply to Artistic Division.
