"COME DRESSED AS AN IRIS"

Pot-Luck Supper

March 14, 1968

6:30 P.M.

Guaranty State Bank
3700 West Broadway

Are you blue?

Does the pin have anything to do with it?

What are those things on your head?

Are you one flower or two?

Are you new?

Are you a Minnesota original?

Do you have anything to do with each other?

STRANGE QUESTIONS? Of course, they are, but they're the kind that fly around in the guessing game of identifying iris represented in costumes worn to our annual "Come as an Iris" party. The more people who come in costume, the more fun there will be, so see if you can conjure up a costume to stump all the guessers.

There will be prizes for the most unusual

the most typical

the most humorous

the most elaborate costumes

plus a prize for the person able to guess the most iris as represented by the costumes worn.

If you didn't sign up to bring something for the pot-luck at the last meeting, call Zula Hanson, 561-1748, or Laura Sutton, 529-3412, to find out what to bring, or bring your favorite hot dish, salad, or cake.
